“Let Us Do Good” Pt. I

Intro: As the Holy ___________ ____________ out the Word of God to Paul, and having convincingly addressed the major concerns of the letter and as is a common pattern among his writings, he now gives some final ____________.

A. Here Paul continues to teach the church what it looks like to be spiritual as we ___________ ____________ doing what is good, fulfilling the law of Christ.

I. Those who ___________ by the Spirit and are “taught the word ___________ all good things with him who teaches.”

A. Though at first glance it may appear that this “___________” is more of a one way thing (the student sharing with the teacher), it really speaks of a reciprocal sharing, a ___________ communicating of good things, an imparting of that which is good one to another just ___________ God has ___________ each one.

1. Here Paul teaches the ___________ to reciprocate by giving something good for having ___________ something good. In return for receiving the good teaching of the Word the student is to ___________ all good things with the teacher.

B. Those who walk by the Spirit mutually ___________ in those things in which they are blessed, one with another. Where one has he shares, and where another has so does he share. As the teacher shares his “___________ things” of the Word with the learner, so is the learner to reciprocate in sharing his “good ___________” with the teacher.

II. Those who walk by the Spirit heed the warning ___________ to be ___________.

A. We are not to be deceived in ___________ that God can be ___________!

1. The term “mocked” literally refers to the active ___________ up of one’s ___________, to the deliberate thumbing of the nose at another, to not only disregard but to blatant ___________.

B. One attempts to ___________ God when they think that His law of sowing and reaping is inconsistent and that they will not reap what they have sown and thus, give themselves to the things of the ___________ (5:19-21). Those who walk by the Spirit comprehend that what they sow today will be ______________ tomorrow for their God is not mocked and the Spirit in them bears witness to this truth and thus, they do the good they are called to do freely and joyfully fulfilling the law of Christ.

1. The ______________ who takes his calling lightly, and fails to study to show himself a workman approved by God, ______ _________ to share the good Word of God through preaching and teaching, who thinks its his to tickle the ears of men rather than pronounce the Words of God, who fleeces God’s flock, will by God be judged in kind for God is not mocked. _____ will ______________ His abundant blessing from the minister who fails to sow the abundant blessing of God’s Word among God’s people, and He will recompense those who fleece the flock.

2. The learner who _____________ only a __________ shows that he values the Word of God only a little, and in return will receive little of the abundant, immeasurable graces and benefits contained in God’s Word. If God’s Word is of little value to us, so that we thumb our nose at God by failing to share all good things with our teacher, then we will __________ very __________ from the Word for God will not be mocked!

3. As teachers and those taught ______ ___ the __________, appreciating the things of God, sharing reciprocally as God has given each one, they will __________ the __________ _______ that which is heavenly, which money cannot buy!

Finally then: As the farmer sows in the expectation of a harvest, so do we _________ in thanksgiving, and so will we reap! Let us walk by the Spirit by sharing all good things. Specifically, let the teachers among us share the Good Word of God with their student and let the students __________ all good things as they have with their teachers. And let us all then share in abundance, knowing that God will cause us to also __________ an abundance of spiritual blessings. As those who are spiritual, let us ___ this _________ that God has called us to and in so doing we fulfill the law of Christ, our Savior. For the fruit of the Spirit is __________.
